

Looking for Talent

TEAM LEADER OPPORTUNITY

Keller Williams Realty San Diego North Inland seeks a dynamic, inspiring and proven leader for a new leader-ship opportunity. Ideal candidate will have several years of REAL ESTATE, Mortgage, Title or Escrow Experience - and be highly driven, with an exceptional track record of success, a strong commitment to accountability and growth, and extraordinary relationship building skills.

We are looking for a person who is looking for an opportunity, not a job! This person is a top producer and has a track record for leadership. They have risen to the top of leadership positions in every area of their business, career, and personal life. They are dynamic, driven, and highly impressive. They are highly assertive, passionate, people-oriented individuals who operate with high urgency. They have strong communication skills and naturally connect with others. When people who know them describe them, they point to their energy and passion as their most dominant characteristics. Their burning desire is to build the dominant real estate company in their market. They have a need to influence others. They can prove this through demonstrating where they have used influence to recruit. They are natural leaders who embrace succeeding through others, bottom-up leadership, and building a team. They possess a track record of relationships. They view learning as the foundation of their action plan.

Requirements: 3-5 years minimum of real estate sales experience and are in the top 5% of their office. Understand basic financial reporting and how to use these to make the right business decisions. Have extremely high goals and are looking for a vehicle to achieve those goals.
