

In 2016, Amongst the Fearless self-released their first album, 'Make Me Come Alive', an album which quickly won them a dedicated fan base. This sound became well known and quickly labeled ATF as one of the freshest sounding bands on the scene, paving the way for the album which would cement their success.

Their hard working, humble attitude, dedication and commitment to their music have seen them enjoying a career that has spanned over the past few years.

Amongst the Fearless is showcased as top songwriters in their genre with an apocalyptic range of songs. They are known for their positive attitudes and attention given to their music and fans making the leaders in the music world winning them a multitude of respect.

Their first music video release for "Take My Hand" was created to push the boundaries in every aspect of their art. They are constantly pushing the envelope of their artistry and setting the stage for being named one of the hardest work bands in the industry. ATF has plans to enter the studio to record their second release in the very near future. They keep themselves busy with a non-stop itinerary, ATF has always aspired not only to have fun making music but to also give back to their community and fans.

Arryn Phoenix – Lead Vocals/Lead Guitar
Dave Allan – Vocals/Guitar
Kris Allan – Drums
Adam Hoover - Keyboard