Stanley Kubrick's BARRY LYNDON LIVE IN CONCERT, A One Night Only Special Event: Film Screening with Live Score Performed by Wordless Music Orchestra on Saturday, April 8, 2017 at Kings Theatre, Brooklyn

Producers Joseph A. Berger and Michael Sayers, in association with Wordless Music and Warner Bros. Pictures, are pleased to announce BARRY LYNDON LIVE IN CONCERT at Brooklyn's extraordinary Kings Theatre on Saturday, April 8, 2017, at 8pm. Stanley Kubrick's masterpiece will be projected in a new 2K DCP restoration, with live musical accompaniment by Wordless Music Orchestra, led by renowned conductor Ryan McAdams.

Redmond Barry (Ryan O'Neal), is a young, roguish Irishman who's determined, in any way, to make a life for himself as a wealthy nobleman. Enlisting in the British Army and fighting in Europe's Seven Years War, Barry deserts, then joins the Prussian army, gets promoted to the rank of a spy, and becomes a pupil to a Chevalier and con artist/gambler. Barry then lies, dupes, duels and seduces his way up the social ladder, entering into a lustful but loveless marriage to a wealthy countess named Lady Lyndon (Marisa Berenson). He takes the name of Barry Lyndon, settles in England with wealth and power beyond his wildest dreams, before eventually falling into ruin.

Barry Lyndon's Oscar winning soundtrack features Irish traditional music and military marches, along with baroque and classical themes by Mozart, Vivaldi, Bach, and Paisiello. Most notable are sumptuous interpretations of Handel's Sarabande and Schubert's Piano Trio in E-Flat Major, D. 929, which emerges as a recurring, melancholic love theme for Lady Lyndon.

The sublime score will be performed by the 50-piece Wordless Music Orchestra, and conducted by Ryan McAdams. Barry Lyndon will be projected on the huge, glorious screen of Kings Theatre (1027 Flatbush Ave, Brooklyn), Brooklyn's premier movie palace and one of the five 'Loew's Wonder Theatres,' opened in 1929 and magnificently restored in 2015. This engagement will be on Saturday, April 8, 2017 at 8pm, and promises to be a memorable evening of live music and masterful cinema. The program is approximately three hours, plus one intermission.

Tickets are $70 - $100, and available now at:

"A film is – or should be – more like music than like fiction. It should be a progression of moods and feelings. The theme, what's behind the emotion, the meaning, all that comes later."
- Stanley Kubrick
