

Press Release: SUNY Poly SGU Announces Spring Concert:

By: Michael Marchio
Sunday February 12th, 2017

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SUNY Poly SGU Concert Committee Off-Campus Marketing Director:
Michael Marchio
marchim@sunyit.edu
(315)-520-4968

SUNY Polytechnic Institute's Student Government at Utica presents:

The All-American Rejects

Featuring Secret Weapons

The SUNY Polytechnic Institute's Student Government at Utica announces a spring concert for the students of both the Utica and Albany campuses and the general public to be held at the Utica Memorial Auditorium on Saturday April 8th, 2017 at 7:30PM. This is the third year the school's Student Government at Utica has organized a spring concert, starting with Bebe Rexha in 2015 and Bryson Tiller in 2016. This year's concert is going to feature headliner The All-American Rejects with opener Secret Weapons.

Venue and Ticket Information:

The concert will be held at the Utica Memorial Auditorium, located at 400 Oriskany Street W. Utica, NY 13502 on Saturday April 8th. The doors open at 7:00PM and the event begins at 7:30PM. Tickets are available to the general public at the Utica Memorial Auditorium Box office located at 400 Oriskany Street W. Utica, NY 13502, via phone call at 315-790-9070, or online at www.empirestatetix.com. Discounted tickets are available to SUNY Polytechnic Institute students at the SUNY Poly Student Activities Office located in the Student Center on the Utica Campus and at the Utica Auditorium Box Office. Students purchasing discounted tickets must show a valid student ID at the time of purchase. The concert venue will be set up as follows: There will be ticketed seating on the upper and floor levels for $35.00 each as well as a Pit section which will be general admission for $45.00 each.

About The All-American Rejects:

"Since the start of their career, alt-rock/power pop titans The All-American Rejects have sold over 10 million albums worldwide and helped define a post-emo sound that was the soundtrack of a decade. With smash hits "Swing, Swing", "Move Along", "Dirty Little Secret", "It Ends Tonight" and "Gives You Hell", their songs have become an indelible slice of the era. Frontman Tyson Ritter has also added acting to his creative arsenal most recently with credits including Love And Mercy,

HBO's Lewis & Clark, NBC's Parenthood, Betas, Miss You already and more. The All-American Rejects are currently supporting Blink 182 on tour as well as working on new material to be released in the upcoming months. More information is located on the band's website: www.allamericanrejects.com

About Secret Weapons:

"Brooklyn-bred Secret Weapons lit up the blogosphere and Spotify charts with their infectious debut single "Something New." Anthemic pop melodies and raucous live performances has landed the duo on 2017's biggest must-see lists."

More information is located on the band's website: www.secretweaponsofficial.com/

About SUNY Poly and the Concert Committee:

SUNY Polytechnic Institute is a college which has two locations in both Marcy, NY and Albany, NY. The SUNY Polytechnic Institute's Student Government at Utica established a committee in October 2016 to organize and execute a spring concert for the school and community. The committee consists of the four executives of the Student Government at Utica and two additional students along with a faculty advisor. The committee members are Samantha Stewart, Quincy Adams, David Abbott, James Hagberg, Anna Oberkircher and Michael Marchio with advisor Jennifer George.

For more information about the concert please contact the Utica AUD Box Office at: 315-790-9070 or the Student Activities Department at SUNY Polytechnic Institute in Utica: 315-792-7530

*The All-American Rejects Bio is not original and was provided by the band's management

The quoted portion of the Secret Weapons bio is not original and was quoted from the band's Facebook page: https://www.facebook.com/pg/secretweaponsofficial/about/?ref=page_internal