Welcome to J Regan Security Services Ltd

J Regan Security Services Ltd are leaders in delivering professional and affordable security services to businesses throughout the UK and Internationally. We pride ourselves in our innovative and developmental approach towards service delivery and organisational culture.

With many years of experience within the security sector, our management and operatives pride themselves with distinction. Offering a range of security services and solutions to many different service sectors.

Drawing on expertise from individuals within and outside of the industry. Enabling J Regan Security Services Ltd to assist organisations with diverse and unique solutions to their security requirements.

Our Commitment To You Is Paramount

Crime reduction has been seen generally as a public service duty, however in recent years the private security industry has evolved to endorse some of those functions. At J Regan Security Services Ltd we ensure that this is shadowed within our application of services. Highlighting any known threats within your sphere of influence, and thereby acting upon and mitigating against known threats within our routines of operations and service.

Prospective clients utilising J Regan Security Services Ltd can be reassured that we allocate specific individuals/teams based upon their merits, personalities and operational capabilities.

When assessing a new clients security arrangements, we believe that each organisation is unique and requires a holistic approach to developing a comprehensive industry standard security survey. Each survey is specifically tailored to reflect your company needs and profile.

Requirements such as staff uniforms (presentation), guarding procedures and duties, health and safety and continuity arrangements will be addressed and incorporated into the security plan, to ensure clarity, definition and transparency of security services.

Operatives

All our operatives are Security Industry Authority (SIA) licensed and have completed extensive training to the highest industry standards. Our goal is that our customers receive a level of service that always meets their exact requirements and expectations.

Screening of individuals employed in a security environment

British Standard 7858 sets out guidelines that assist employers with screening their staff pre-employment. It suggests best-practice recommendations and sets the standard for the security screening of staff in an environment where the safety of people, goods or property is essential. It also looks at information relating to the Rehabilitation of Offenders and Data Protection Acts.

J Regan Security Services Ltd is registered with the Information Commissioners Office:
(Reg No ZA042222)

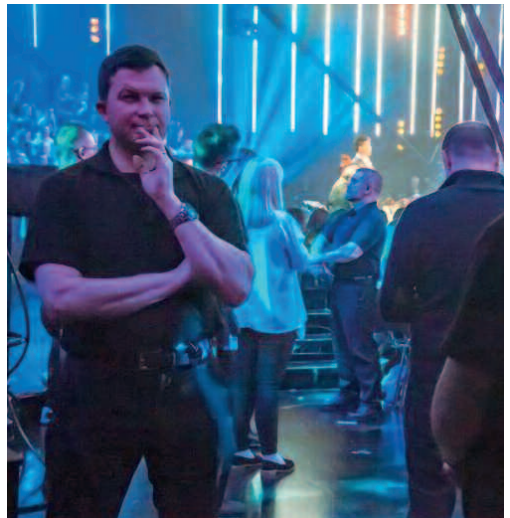

All J Regan Security Services Ltd operatives are screened in accordance with BS 7858.

Celebrity/VIP Protection

At J Regan Security Services Ltd we understand that in certain environments or situations, it is necessary to provide a higher degree of protection towards your personal or business interests without impacting upon your ability to operate on a daily basis.

J Regan Security Services Ltd offer a variety of tested and professional close protection services. Whether this be a high profile client, event, or covert protection team, our operatives and management team have many years of experience working on projects with clients throughout the UK and Internationally. This ensures that our clients receive the correct level of protection, by establishing a tiered protective response and assigned an appropriate operative or team capable of delivering a safe environment or mitigating any risk concerns you may have.

Our close protection teams offer a variety of assistance to a range of businesses and clientele including Corporate, TV & Film, Music Celebrities, Book Signings, Residential Protection Teams and Escorting duties.

Close Protection Officers work with the Celebrities and their agents to ensure that private life remains private but when attending a public event, or making a public appearance, we plan ahead and take every precaution to safeguard our clients and their fans. This allows the celebrities to meet, greet fans and sign autographs in a safe and controlled manner.

For all of our clients we make sure that they are not cocooned in an impenetrable ring of security but that can lead as normal a lifestyle as possible whilst being assured and confident that their own safety is being managed in a discreet, complementary and professional manner.

Whatever our client's status or whether they are at home or in a hotel, carrying out normal daily tasks or making a public appearances, their security will evolve constantly in proportion to the threat against them enabling the security officers to control access to the client according to the client's wishes.

The role of a Close Protection Officer is to protect the life and associated interests of the client.

Manned Guarding

J Regan Security Services Ltd offer manned guarding solutions to a variety of industry sectors. These include: retail, industrial, manufacturing, construction, commercial and leisure. Our experienced management will find the best individual, team or solution to your security requirements, ensure that your requirements have been established and that an appropriate asset has been deployed complimenting your security requirements.

Before we deploy any individual, certain obligations are always enforced. These include mandatory screening to BS7858, insurance and person liability cover, training to national standards and in-house training specific to your organisational requirements and expectations.

J Regan Security Services Ltd ensures that a strong culture of due diligence is embedded within our organisation. Our teams have access to a support network 24/7, ensuring that our legal and cultural perspectives are enforced.

Asset Protection

"The reduction of risk to your organisation can be transferred cost effectively... giving you piece of mind and reducing the overheads of security protection"

As risk and security threats develop in a changing business and global climate, some organisations assets, infrastructure and personnel become susceptible to certain vulnerabilities. J Regan Security Services Ltd offer a range of asset protection methods, to ensure your personnel and business interests are secured against certain risks factors.

Having many years experience within asset protection, allows our management team to highlight the best workable and cost effective solution to your concerns. Having established a solution to a potential or developing threat, J Regan Security Services Ltd can deploy experienced security teams or close protection operatives, ensuring that your risk exposure is minimised by establishing a protective environment surrounding your security concerns.

High Value Cargo Escorts

Once an asset or item of cargo has left the safety of its home environment, this is when it is at its most vulnerable. J Regan Security Services Ltd offer escort personnel and vehicles to one of the worlds leading global telecommunications companies. Our professional staff stay with the vehicle at all times, whilst management have access to the vehicles position through satellite GPS tracking and continuous communications with the drivers.

With the increased threat of robbery, theft and kidnapping in recent times, many organisations have adopted a risk reduction strategy such as escorts to protect their staff and ensure supply chains are not disrupted.

Our operatives will escort the vehicle until its destination, ensure all of the vehicles security tags/ seals and contents are secure, take photographic evidence and report back to control once the handover has been completed.

In some cases the cargo has been of an important or valuable nature. In these instances a full security survey of the route and potential areas of threat can be established prior to the cargo leaving its home environment. Our operatives can also liaise with local Police and continually update the client through real time communications.

History - John Regan had over 20 years experience within the security industry, prior to setting up J Regan Security Services Ltd in 2012.
