ABOUT US

Becky Barrett Management is a Central London based agency, providing only the very best dancers for events and shows across the UK and internationally.

We have over 30 years' experience in the performing arts industry and with our extensive background in dance we can ensure that we know the difference between average and excellent.

WHY USE US

Every single one of our dancers has completed training at a top establishment and has performed in professional stage shows. They are experienced and extremely talented.

To be represented by Becky Barrett Management, our dancers complete rigorous auditions followed by one-to-one interviews. We know each of them individually, and we know their skill sets.

When you hire our dancers, you can be assured that we will supply only the best standard and the right fit for your needs.

Add to all this our clear and competitive pricing structure, and we believe Becky Barrett Management offers a service that outshines others in our sector.
