About our run

Lumière '17 - Illumi-Night Run will act as the opening event to officiate the Lumière '17 campaign. The run will be held at night in order for light sources to be incorporated into the event which acts as the symbolic icon of Lumière, which means 'light' in French.

At the finishing line, there will be a bazaar to allow stall vendors, student volunteers and the special needs community to run their respective stalls. The bazaar will be opened to the public and everyone will be able to get food and drinks from the stalls.

How to register?

You can choose to register online at Online Registration Form or at our physical booth*.
