

Parlement Act of 125

Provisions made at Nessa in the presence of our Lord King Carlos, King of Kassians, Lord of Nessa

Preface

In the year of founding, one hundred five-and-twenty, year of the reign of King Carlos the Just our Lord who does find it just that he finds the establishment of a Parlement so as they represent the people and members of the non-nobility in life amongst the Kassians. It was Provided, agreed, and ordained, that whereas the Realm of Kassia of late had been disquieted with manifold Troubles and Dissensions; for Reformation whereof Statutes and Laws be right necessary, whereby the Peace and Tranquility of the People must be observed; wherein the King, intending to devise convenient Remedy, hath made these Acts, Ordinances, and Statutes underwritten, which he willeth to be observed for ever firmly and inviolably of all his Subjects, as well high as low.

Section 1. Establishment of a Court

It is by the word of our King that a court shall be established known as the Kassian Parlement. This Parlement is a house that shall reside in Nessa and is comprised of one-and-twenty seats comprised of a representative from each county. These representatives may be nominated by their respective count or duke, but must be approved by our just and noble King.

Section 2. Powers of the Parlement

The Court of Parlement will reside under the full power of the King. The court upholds the right and representation of the people by creating and writing legislation that may be later brought before the King for approval. Members that are ordained agree to play a role as an advisor to the King.

Section 3. Members of Parlement

Any man appointed by the King may reside as a member of Parlement. This is excluding any members of landed nobility who are forbidden to hold seats as it may contradict their role as the ruler of their respective land. A single member is appointed from each county and that appointee must be approved by the King. The King reserves his right to decline any man to the council who may be a threat or otherwise.