

Mission

We exist to provide a worry free mortgage experience to our clients and add value to our referral partners reputations.

Vision

The Jensen Team will be recognized as Arizona's premier home lender in terms of client satisfaction, on-time closings, employee retention and reputation among our peers. We will experience significant, sustained, profitable growth.

With hard work, a passionate commitment to excellence, and persistence without exception, our people will collectively accomplish something extraordinary that could not have been done individually. We will be respected and admired by our clients, our employees, our referral partners and our peers. We will build the best support systems, utilize the best technologies and surround ourselves with the best people as we accomplish our goals.

We will create a fulfilling workplace where our people willingly go the extra mile because of the value they provide and their pride of ownership in a job well done. We will be viewed as the pinnacle of home lending because of our passion for excellence and the accomplishments we achieve daily. Together, we will systematically build a company that attracts and retains people who are energized by helping others.
