Write a 1,400- to 1,750-word paper in which you analyze the data in the annual reports and SEC filings. Address the following:

- Assess the role of ethics and compliance in your organization's financial environment.
- Describe procedures your organization has in place to ensure ethical behavior.
- Explain how financial markets work in the United States.
- Identify processes the organization uses to comply with SEC regulations.
- Evaluate your organization's financial performance during the past 2 years, using financial ratios. Calculate the ratios for each year:

- o Current
- o Debt
- o Return on equity
- o Days receivable

Discuss the trend for each ratio and what it tells you about the organization's financial health.

Format your paper consistent with APA guidelines.
