Yes. We can finally to writers workshop. Overglad. So much has happened since the last time we got to write. I don't know where to start. Maybe I can start with the current state of my health. Okay, so. I'm sick. Not like "106°F fever, gotta go to ER" sick but more like "I'm coughing so much that I think I'm getting abs" sick. I went to the doctors yesterday and went to get my medication afterwards. I didn't get home until 5:00 was a bummer. My mom gave me my medication and not soon after, the drowsiness brought me to sleep. I knacked out, woke up around midnight, and knacked out again. My mom isn't letting me stay at school any longer than I should which is sad. I was looking forward to 3-day but given my current state, I don't think I can eat any junk food per se. Moving on. We finally got to start on our coll project. We have a week and a few days to do it. I think it's due on the 18th or something. Our theme this year is Facebook stickers. My group chose to do that ~~difficult~~ turtle from "Get on it, Puffins" that has 3 spots coming from its shell. It's pretty easy which is great for us. Ahahahahaha. I ended being the one to sketch it yesterday. Fantastic. I drew it like three times but whatever. ~~the~~ The final sketch is done. I just need to trace and color, but I'm pretty sure I already traced it. Then again, why am I complaining? It's a really basic turtle that can be drawn in like 10 strokes. lololol. I don't know what else to say. The 15 minutes is about to be up soon. Egh. I'm dying. It's so hard to hold in my cough. I'm currently very mad. But I kept for like 12 hours? Today. Why must you be so weak?? And I thought I wouldn't get sick this year. Or well. At least I'm not sick around AP testing and finals in May. That'd be terrible. Can't wait to tell ~~everyone~~ AP Physics and AP Enviro on the same day. Any. I proceed to cough violently here. Kill me now. Aa. I wanna go home and sleep. Oh well. I can last until lunch time. I have 2 quizzes and a test to study for and 2 lesson assignments to finish. I was gonna do one of them yesterday but I just ended up sleeping. Why must all 3 of my most important classes be on the same day? Aa. I wh. Baw.

- write about being sick?

- rewrite that story that I gave to Raven?

- recommend one?

- the hit one?
