

THOMSON – Discovery 1 and Discovery 2 FAQ

What restaurants are Included in the All Inclusive?

- 47 (The Main Dinning Room or “MDR”)
- Gallery 47 (Italian)
- Islands (Buffet Restaurant)
- Glasshouse (Pizza and Tapas menu)
- Snack Shack

What restaurants are available at a surcharge?

- Surf and Turf (£25 per person)
- Kora La (£20 per person)
- Sushi Bar (In Kora La) (£13.95)
- Glasshouse Hot Stones Menu (£9.95)

Can I take an Iron on-board?

- Irons are not allowed on board the ship for safety reasons
- Laundry Service is available (See photos for price list)

Is there Wifi on the ship and how much is it?

- Wifi is available for a charge on ship
- Is costs £90 for 2 weeks (2400MB limit), £49 for a week (1200MB limit), £25 for 3 days (500MB limit), £15 for 1 day (300MB limit), £8 for 1 hour (75MB limit)
- Free WIFI is only available in the Concierge Suites for those with Grand Suites and above (Not Junior Suites)

What Drinks are included in the Standard All Inclusive package?

- There is a comprehensive list available in the photos section
- Sodas (Coke lemonade etc) are included if you have them by the glass
- Bottles of Wine are not included, only by the glass
- Bottled Water is not included in the Standard All Inclusive, only by the glass
- Mixers for alcoholic drinks are included if served in the glass
- Coffee from the bars is included (See list in photos), but not from the Coffee Port or the glasshouse (which serves the same premium Lavazza Coffee)
- All other drinks are available at a subsidised upgrade price detailed on the menus

Is there a premium Drinks package – How much does it cost to upgrade?

- The Premium Drinks upgrade allows you to have all available drinks listed (See photos)
- Bottled Water, Cans of drink, all drinks in coffee port are included (after 10am)
- Bottles of wine are still not included
- Cost is currently £70 a week per person (£10 per person per night)
- All adults in the group need to purchase the package
- Children do not pay the premium upgrade

What is the Dress Code?

- Main restaurants require Smart Casual - Long Trousers for Men, no sandals/Flip Flops. Smart Jeans can be worn, but not ripped/faded etc. Swimwear and Shorts are not allowed. Women can wear sandals
- Islands buffet has no formal dress code, so shorts etc can be worn
- On Dress to Impress night, you are not obliged to dress formally, but many people do. This can be Suits or Tuxedos for Men and Cocktail dresses for women.

Do I need to bring towels?

- No. Towels are provided for use in cabin and also for the pool

What plug sockets are in the cabin?

- 2 European and 2 American sockets are present in the cabins so adapters would be required.
- Discovery 2 includes USB sockets in the Lamps in the cabin

What time do I have to leave the cabin on the day of departure?

- You need to vacate your room by 8am
- You do have the option of late checkout for cost of £35 if you wish and there is availability
- On the evening before departure, your cases must be outside your cabin before 2am