

Recent Appointments at CBE

A number of new appointments have been announced at retail software company CBE. Sean Kenna has been appointed CEO and Dominic Feeney Managing Director. This follows the retirement of Gerard Concannon from the position of CEO; he retains the position of Chairman. In addition, Gearóid Concannon has been appointed a Group Director within the company with Shane McGowan being promoted to Systems Director and Oliver Sheridan promoted to Director of Retail.

Headquartered in Claremorris, Co. Mayo, CBE was founded by Gerard and his wife Catherine in 1980 and has grown to become one of the major retail technology companies in Europe and now employs over 150 people. CBE designs and develops software applications for the supermarket, convenience, forecourt and hospitality sectors. CBE currently operate in Ireland, UK, Spain, Algeria, Canada and Australia. The appointments come at an exciting time for the company as they have announced plans to enter the American market. CBE have added 40 new employees to their workforce on the back of winning a number of major contracts and to aid their global expansion plans.

Sean Kenna,
CEO

Dominic Feeney,
Managing Director

Gearóid Concannon,
Group Director

Shane McGowan,
Systems Director

Oliver Sheridan,
Director of Retail