ADRENALIN

BIO

ADRENALIN, the alternate ego of Joshua turned electronic music producer/DJ who takes his music from one extreme to the next through Melodic and festival style bass thumping music.

He's gone through many creative phases that helped shape his craft into a versatile art form. With the likes of artists like Skrillex | Dillion Francis | DJ Snake, over the years he's been honing his skills by publishing his work on various online markets and gaining the likes and hearts of the audience who hear it. His sets and dj'ing style is unique because of his inclusion of some unusual originals, mainstream and underground music.

He is also a keyboardist and handles the electronica section with Ashwamedh (Won the Silver for India in the Best Rock Song category at the Indigo Asian Music Awards 2011-2012) and former band Moonburn during 2011 to 2014.
