As Moon enters Aries today, you may find a renewed thrust of dynamism and energy engulfing you, predicts astrologer. A big gathering with friends is likely to take place today and you find yourself letting your head down and hitting the dance floor. You will easily be the social butterfly of the evening and will charm everyone, with much of the evening centered on you. This is a busy time for you socially as friends are dropping when you least expect them. Welcome them with open arms as their company will be a great stress reliever and you will be able to reminisce and laugh about old times. This will energize you for the times to come. Wearing white is recommended today.

There is a difference of opinion with a senior colleague. Should such a situation may arise, you need to keep your temper down and words to yourself. In case it seems like things are going to become sour, it'd be in your best interest to talk things through; after all, it is just an opinion! However, if you feel talking will make things worse because of the other person's ego, smile and back out.

family today. you have been consolidating your relationship with your family of late. It has borne fruit as your family is warm and empathetic towards you as well. You have worked hard on your relationship and just need to keep it that way. As the moon enters Aries, things look bright for you, as you are there for each other in times of need. Why don't you go out with your loved ones and spend some time together - a movie or a picnic perhaps? Consider buying them a small gift to show your appreciation of their support. Wearing black will help you attract positive energy. An appropriate time to do your important task lies between 9:20 am and 10:00 am so plan your activities
