All Public Policy Begins At The Same Place – The Ballot Box.

Over the past several months, I've engaged in wide ranging and interesting discussions with dozens of friends and members of Michigan's LGBTQ community who are active in politics. There is a universal recognition of the need for a greater LGBTQ presence in election campaigns in which we aggressively support our friends and just as aggressively oppose our enemies. Harvey's Fund is inspired by LGBTQ activist and martyr Harvey Milk and is patterned after the successful women's PAC, Emily's List.

Harvey's Fund Is A Nonpartisan Member Of The Trump Resistance Coalition

Policies directly related to the LGBTQ community such as adding civil rights protections for gender identity and sexual orientation to the State Constitution or the Elliott-Larson Civil Rights Act are paramount. But our advocacy does not stop there. LGBTQ rights are human rights. Human rights include a livable minimum wage, access to quality public schools, protections for our environment among other important issues. The LGBTQ community is not politically homogeneous. Harvey's Fund is a home for Political Progressives. We will be a full-throated part of the coalition resisting the policies of Donald Trump and his Cabinet. These people repeatedly proven themselves to be no friend of our community.
