Calling all Kings, Queens, Knights and Princesses! This is your chance to own your very own castle! For the Renaissance lover, this is a unique medieval themed, Tudor-Style home in central Pinellas County will have you throwing neighborhood jousting events and even enjoying a family dinner with your little knights at the round table! This estate is sitting on 1.6 acres of land, plenty of room for activities! Without sacrificing all the city conveniences. Built in 2002, this pool home has so much to offer from the moment you pull through the drawbridge (not included) into the manicured front garden. Enter the charming arched doorway and step into the circular foyer with art niche, you will understand why this a must see! High vaulted ceilings, projected wood casements and rich, decorative details have created a handsome, warm environment to call HOME. Decorative timbers embrace the gabled ceiling of the great room and as a focal point for guests, there is a wood-burning fireplace that can easily be switched to gas. Wood cabinets and granite adorn the gourmet kitchen with large breakfast room, working island, double oven, and warming drawer. There will always be enough room for gathering guests or family in the kitchen. Updated Master Suite Bath room with double sinks and Walk In Shower. Screened-in, heated Pebble Tec Pool and Spa greet you from the breakfast room with a lounging lanai and an outdoor kitchen. And there is so much more...three single car garage with side load entry, RV pad and full electric hook-up, two AC zones, wood casements throughout rooms and halls, tumbled travertine details, built-in book cases, large, formal dining room with pocket doors leading into the kitchen, closet pantry and trash compactor, full attic storage, motion detector and security system as well as a built in outdoor grill. Schedule an appointment today to see why this home is fit for a King!
