

Sinister Threat

The Book of Sins

"Self"

Of Rage and Hate

What are these illusions that cause my delusions
The fear is real for the eyes filled with grey
I live far away in imagination
To close to the truth only got you burned by the flame

(Is the only truth...that there are no truths)

The hate within burns stronger everyday
No longer blind I see I was betrayed
The time of anger is behind me so turn the page
Now you will bow down...before my era of rage

(And the hatred flooded in... like darkness over the hill)

Why do I hate
I am the God that I create
Search inside yourself before It's to late
You are the God that you create

[Solo: John]

Why do I hate
I am the God that I create
Search inside yourself before It's to late
You are the God that you create

Why do YOU hate
You are the God that you create
Search inside your hate before It's to late
You are the God that you create

(Alright)
Under The Moon
A chill in the air
On the back of my neck
Stands up the hair
Look to the sky
The Moon alone (alone)
Only one of its kind
Its gloom changes my state of mind

(I'm going insane)

MOONLIGHT

[Solo: David]

Moon

Then out of nowhere
A dark mass covers its light
All is dark
It too changes my state of mind
I feel sadness and madness
Not knowing what to do
I fall on my knees
In absolute rage

(screaming, weeping I'm going insane)

[Solo: David and John]

Your light...
I can't describe...
Now this time...
I'm going insane

(crawling in pain once again)

Under The Devil's Wing

From out of Hell you climbed
Looking for a saviour you'll never find
Guided down an evil trail
Falling deeper and deeper
Into a self-inflicted hell

See the path that is left behind in the wake
And I don't give a fuck
Hear the voices screaming to take... you away...
Can't hide or escape, from your twisted fate
You will sing then you will scream
When your flying
Under The Devil's Wing

The orange skies are burning
Can you feel the yearning (inside)
See all your angels falling
The black smoke is calling... for...you

See the path that is left behind in the wake
And you don't give a fuck
Hear the voices screaming to take
You away...
I'm soaring high and I'll break you down
You will sing then you will scream
When your dieing
Under The Devil... under...my...wing

悪魔の下に翼で

[Solo: John]

[Solo: David]

Dark eyes behold...
A fallen grace
Black Skies all around me
Yet you wanna see past, this, face

The night...is where it feeds
On your hopes and dreams
Like a virus of the consciousness
It's killing me, it's endless

(How did you get this far
Do you even know who you are?
You'll never be... who you want to be In the end you will see)

You feed... on my mind... can you feel it, it's on the inside

You feed on my mind, thoughts and dreams
So what will you become

I've got an evil mind
You wanna come peer inside
Who knows what you'll find
There's no escape...

[Solo: John]

I'm discovering, something, that was forgotten long ago
Remove the shadow from the dark
And the shadow
It grows...

It feeds on my mind
Eating the wickedness
I've got an evil mind
You wanna come peer inside
Who knows what you'll find
There's no escape...now die

It's inside here now...

And when the weight of the world
(the world)
Comes crashing down upon your back
And the tedious routines everyday eating away
All attack
Oh for the voice like thunder and the scream
Like lightning from the sky
Into the ground goes the bolt and from the Worms...I arise...

Rise

Lucid Madness

Fire
Burning in the night
Illusions of light
Can all be seen
From Beyond
Graves...
At the old hill
Growing darker still
Just a memory, of what is left of me
(what is left of me)

Hope Fleeing in fear
Of what is here
Death is alone
Waiting by the stone
Waiting...Calling...Haunting...Dreaming
Of our, final meeting
Here we stand
At The Graves

(Divinity through Chaos Chaos through Divinity)

Seven Seals
Open to me
Lucid Madness of what's to be
Shadows calling from beyond
screaming, they too belong
A final time, a final place
Crushing force, realized fate
Here we stand
At The Graves

The faces of the ones
Never to be seen again
Haunt my dreams
and tear apart these memories
Oh god...my mind...is torn apart

*(The Moon cast no shadow that night
As the stones touch was as smooth as silk
The faint reflection in the steel of the scythe Revealed the truth, and then...)*

The blood,
Pooled on the floor
Just like before
Just a memory
Of what is left of me

(So down you go deeper, and darker inside your mind)

Seven Seals
Open to me
Lucid Madness of what's to be
Shadows calling from beyond
screaming, they too belong
A final time, a final place
Crushing force, realized fate
Here we stand
At..
The...
Graves

Angels to some, yet to others we're Demons
Come with us and we'll give you freedom
Like a book, yearning to be read
A door, longs to be open...

Sealed and Bound
By unbreakable chains
Come let me show you the glorious pain
Will you go down to where theres no tomorrow
The choice is yours...
Will you follow?

(Will you follow...)

We have such exciting sights to show you, my child
Welcome to the worst nightmare of all
Reality

Sealed and Bound
By unbreakable chains
Come let me show you the glorious pain
Will you go down to where theres no tomorrow
The choice is yours...
Follow Me

[Solo: John]

Sealed and Bound
By unbreakable chains
Come let me show you the glorious pain
Will you go down to where theres no tomorrow
The choice was yours
Now you're with Me

Hell's Legend

Otherside

All alone now
With my own thoughts
I feel my wounds, so deep
My hatred is, slowly dieing
Gripped by despair
There's no way out
But that's ok tonight
I've made some peace

Now I, want to see
What the Otherside has waiting for me
No longer do I try and fight
I slip away into the night

I close my eyes
And I know that soon I'll be free
Into the darkness
Yea that's where I'll be
I cry out to death,
"Come and take me"
I take my last breath, tonight,
And now I'm free

Now I, want to see
What the Otherside has waiting for me
No longer do I try and fight
I slip away into the night

[Solo: David]

[Solo: John]

Now I, want to see
What the Otherside has waiting for me
No longer do I try and fight
I slip away into... the night

To Know What Cannot Be Known

A winter of the mind
The cruelty of the heart
A black winds coming down on me
To tear me apart
It was never meant to be
It was an end game
It was over from the start
Devised
In your name

(A winter of the mind)
(The cruelty of the heart)
(A black winds coming down on me)
(To tear me apart)

In your name

To know what cannot be
What cannot be known
To know what cannot be
To know what cannot be known

[Solo: David]
[Solo: John]

There
Is Only
Down
Unforeseen
Death Abounds

A winter of the mind
The cruelty of the heart
A black winds coming down on me
To tear me apart
It was never meant to be
It was an end game
It was over from the start
Devised
In your name

(A winter of the mind)
(The cruelty of a cunt)
(A black winds coming down on You)
(To tear You apart)

IN MY NAME
In my fucking name

To know what cannot be
To know what cannot be
To know what cannot be known

It cannot be...
