

Finally time to get it started Oct 17 2017 marks the beginning of a long fantasy season! Looks like a few teams have had very good draft picks. Everyone is shocked to see LeBron James go 1st overall and Russell Westbrook fall to number 3rd pick very interesting. The experts pick Big Ballin as early favorites on paper they look to take home the ring this year who will stop them. The sleeper team appears to be 94 Feet with a strong starting five buy a questionable bench! Team Haskins also has a nice starting five with KAT leading the way. While teams like RAREform and Team Canada looks suspect I not sure what the GM's where thinking Kristaps Porzingis and Wade might have went to early in the draft but time will tell.

Example of how to set line ups!

Players	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thru	Fri	Sat	Sun
PG		C. Paul		C. Paul	C. Paul		J. Wall
SG	Kobe	Kobe		Jordan		Wade
SF			LaBron	Melo	LaBron		S.Pippen
PF	C.Barkley		C.Barkley		S. Kemp	S. Kemp
C		P.Ewing	P.Ewing	P.Ewing			P.Ewing
UTIL	Magic J	L Bird		Magic J	L. Bird

So as the chart shows each position get 4 games a week, total of 24 games a week, which player plays the four games is totally up to you as long as that player can play that position. So if Kobe had 5 games this week he could play 4 games at SG and 1 game at UTIL as an example or any combination as long as each position only has 4 games.

PG = 4 games a week

SG = 4 games a week

SF = 4 games a week

PF = 4 games a week

C = 4 games a week

UTIL = 4 games a week.

Total = 24 games a week

It's a short week only 6 days this week so make sure them line-ups are set and you use all 24 games if possible.

Any question please reach out even though it's a long season you don't want to give up games each week counts good luck and may the best teams win!
