

Oblivion Party

Rules

---

CODE OF CONDUCT

- Always remember to get explicit consent before doing anything
- Respect the privacy of others. What is seen or heard at the event stays at the event
- Photography is strictly forbidden.
- Mobile phones are to be left in your pocket. Phone calls can only be made outside the event area or in the designated spaces.
- No cameras, Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs) or other recording devices are permitted within event area.
- Zero tolerance policy to insults, verbal aggressions and unwanted personal remarks
- Anyone appearing to be intoxicated or mentally impaired may be refused admittance.
- All attendees must wear appropriate “vanilla” clothing outside of the event area.
- Smoking is allowed only in designated areas.
- Please refrain from wearing perfume, cologne, or heavy scents.

GENERAL RULES

- Absolutely no recording devices of any type are permitted in the Dungeon.
- Dungeon Monitors (DMs) will be on duty to supervise activities in the play space. Any questions or concerns regarding activities taking place during the play parties should be directed to a DM. All decisions by the DMs are final.
- Inform a DM before commencing a scene
- Clean equipment and surrounding areas after your scene. Wipe equipment down with disinfectant. Cleaning materials will be provided in the Dungeon.
- It is recommended that you bring your own toys.
- Safer sex practices, including the use of latex or other barriers when body fluids are present, are strongly encouraged. Safe sex supplies including gloves and condoms will be available for use.

- Do not handle or touch other players toys or personal equipment without permission.
- Do not intrude into a scene unless specifically invited by the scene participants.
- Watching scenes from a respectful distance is permitted, but please keep all conversations, laughter, and comments to a minimum. Do not talk to players while a scene is progressing unless invited by the players.