A BLAST TO THE PAST BY JULCHEN

WHY DID WW1 HAPPEN? (PART 1)

It was pretty obvious that a war was going to break out since France wanted the land back from Germany, Germany wanted to build an Empire and they were building ships in mass quantities that made England nervous. Austria-Hungary and the Ottoman Empire thought they were stronger and better than other countries but of course, the other countries disagreed.

In Sarajevo in Austria-Hungary, the arch-duke, Franz Ferdinand, and his wife went to agree to some terms with the Serbian's because they were on very uneven terms. On their way, they drove down main roads, in an open car and told everyone in advance that they were driving down main roads in an open car in the news.

A group of assassins were waiting at four main points for him. The first didn't act, the second threw a bomb that blew up the car behind the Arch-duke and was captured. Even though they were nearly killed they go back to visit the wounded officers still in their open-topped car.

The driver took a wrong turn and by sheer misfortune one of the assassins were there and they shot the arch-duke. This triggered the war.

Austria-Hungary thought that Serbia had something to do with the assassins, and they probably did, so they go declare war on Serbia.

A BLAST TO THE PAST

BY JULCHEN

WHO ARE WHOSE FRIENDS?

Austria-Hungary is friends with Germany and Serbia is protected by Russia who's friends with France so they all declare war on each other. France is kinda friends with England. Although England just stayed out of the war at first. Which is great for Germany.

Germany has a plan believe or not. Russia takes a lot of time getting ready for war so Germany was going to attack France so quickly that Russia would not be ready yet and then take over Russia but no that didn't happen.

France had lots of defences along the German border and because Germany didn't want to fight them they went through Belgium. Belgium is a neutral country and they start to fight back so they slow Germany down and England gets involved in the war because they are allied with Belgium. And Germany continues to attack Belgium.

America got interested in England's and Germany's propaganda of the war and through the whole thing was just trying to get them to love each other but still helped out the Allies destroy Germany.

Russia is now finally ready for war. Germany asks Austria-Hungary to take care of it and Austria-Hungary fail miserably and so Germany has to send troops over to help them.

Back on the Western Front Germany was advancing pretty quickly. The trenches start from the sea all the way to Switzerland, and now let's learn about trench warfare.

A BLAST TO THE PAST

TRENCH WARFARE

Trench warfare is where there are trenches facing each other quite far apart and in the middle, there is No Man's Land. It is called No Man's Land because barely anyone survives going through it. One side would attack with thousands of artillery shells 24/7. Then the attacking troops would run across No Man's Land until they gave up or took over the opposition's trench. The defending trench would shoot the attackers while they were still safe and the attackers would suffer huge casualties.

Living in the trenches was a war of its own in a way. You had to overcome:

- Corpses
- Mud that could leave you stuck and sometimes even drown you (like quicksand)
- Pools of poisonous water
- Rats
- Diseases
- The smell

Thank you for reading! If you have historical events you would like me to write about don't hesitate to PM me and I'll try to look into it! See ya for part two in the next issue, Julchen.

AN INTERVIEW

WITH AGRESSIVE SOUTHERNER
(A+C INC.)

Preussen: I'm really glad you're excited about this! Thank you so much for saying you'll do it, it means a lot.

AgRESSIVE SOUTHERNER (A+C Inc.): Np my dude, ready whenever you are!

Preussen: How long have you been in the fandom for and, when and why did you join Amino?

AgRESSIVE SOUTHERNER (A+C Inc.): I've been in the fandom for about 4-5 years now. I joined Amino when I first into Doctor Who. Eventually, I joined the Hetalia fandom when I heard about it on Virtual Space, then I moved to Anime Amino and started my Hetalia obsession there.

Preussen: That's a long time to have been in the fandom for and from what I've seen you contribute to the community a lot and that is wonderful! We don't see much of that in the Hetalia fandom. Next question! On the subject of communities, you're a retired curator. Is there a reason that you left? What you enjoy your experience as being such an integral part of our community ?

AgRESSIVE SOUTHERNER (A+C Inc.): Yes, I am a retired curator. I would rather not say the reason I retired for it's rather personal, and I don't want to start any drama. I enjoyed feeling like I was actually protecting someone. Sometimes I can be a very motherly person, when I was a curator part of me felt like a mother. I helped a lot of people and I'm happy that I did.

Preussen: Thank you for your time as a curator though. From what I've heard it's very a very difficult role to take on.

AN INTERVIEW

WITH AGGRESSIVE SOUTHERNER
(A+C INC.)

AgGRESSIVE SOUTHERNER (A+C Inc.): It really is

Preussen: What parts of the community do you like the most?

AgGRESSIVE SOUTHERNER (A+C Inc.): Oof that's a hard one, I think I enjoy the roleplay community the most because of their wild and active personalities that they can have. A lot of these roleplayers also do things like draw, I just feel like I can relate with the art and RP community the most. I mean I have a wild personality too so it's lowkey bias.

Preussen: I have spent some time in and around the art and roleplay communities and have made some wonderful friends, and I don't think it biased at all! Time for another question: Your art is beautiful and I loved your most recent artwork, titled 'The Communist Twix and the Capitalist Musketeer'. Especially with the background. Has there been anything that has influenced on art style?

AgGRESSIVE SOUTHERNER (A+C Inc.): Mhm, mainly from the ZodiacLord, and my other artist friends like Mexi and Hucco. I just remember seeing a DIY with that kind of background a while ago. Plus I had candy I didn't like so I used it.

Preussen: That's possibly the best use for candy I've seen in a while, other than eating it, that is. Now for the last question of the day; I've seen that you have made a few Alternate Universes. Would you like to tell me a bit about your favourites? Even if they're not made by you.

AgGRESSIVE SOUTHERNER (A+C Inc.): I think at the moment my most favorite is my Digital Parasite AU, based off of the Doctor Who episode Nightmare in Silver, basically in the AU it's post-apocalypse and most humans and nations have been turned into complete robots or cyborgs.

AN INTERVIEW

WITH AGGRESSIVE SOUTHERNER
(A+C INC.)

The origin of the problem being an human interface (which I haven't named an official character to be) once there are four of these robot parasites in an uninfected's mind, they are taken over by a robotic alternate personality. The more parasites infecting you, the stronger the personality is. The alternate personality is NOT a 2p. Actually in this AU 1p's, 2p's, and Nyo's live in the same world and call each other cousins.

My second favorite is probably the Wolftalia AU I have collabed with my fellow former curator, Mexico, to make. It takes place in Yellowstone National Park and tells the tale of two rival packs merging into one after a large war broke out. Her Mexico OC leads the pack that won the war and is an extremely skilled huntress. While Alexander leads the losing pack and is a talented young upstart. Especially in the art of war.

Finally I have NUW, which stands for National Underground. It is a strictly OC-based AU with only 5-7 canon countries. Basically the canon characters and the OC's are divided into two worlds. The canon's world is normal and is earth. While the OC's is covered in a total eclipse, and is separated into four plateaus, with one admin ruling each plateau. An admin is literally the creator of an OC. The admin's main OC is their representative. For example, in the AU I am an admin of the third plateau and Alexander is my representative. All Hetalia OC's are in this underworld and are divided among each plateau at random. The plateaus have no way of communicating with each other and cannot travel between each plateau. When 5-7 canon countries are poofed there thanks to one of the Admins, the canons are able to create bridges for all of the OC's and canons to move across.

Preussen: They sound really interesting! Thank you for sharing them, I would be interested to read any one of these AU's as a story. Once again, thank you for taking the time to do an interview! It was wonderful to talk to you. Have an awesome day!

FANFICTION REVIEW

BY CRAZYCAT233

Hey there everyone, it's CrazyCat233 here with this HetaMagazine's first fanfiction review! We are starting with KayRocker's recent FrUK oneshot, "Recipes are for Amateurs," which features our beloved Frenchman and Englishman, planning to celebrate America and Canada's birthday with a set birthday cakes. KayRocker combines a little bit of humor, fluff, and headcanons to create a wonderful story that is sure to keep readers entertained. A few things I liked most about this piece was the use of headcanons and how the characters were portrayed. The headcanon about England getting anxiety about cooking for others provided more depth to the reason why his food was "bad." The characters weren't over-exaggerated, which I appreciate greatly as it's easier to write out of character than in character. The story and writing itself was very adorable, I loved the writing style as well. For a little bit of critique for the future, I think that when characters are speaking back and forth, you put a little more space between the quotation marks. It was a little hard to keep up with who was saying what when there was two or more phrases being said right beside each other. Besides that, this writing was wonderful, please never stop writing, and keep improving!

ART REVIEWS

BY SPLIT STAR

This is a piece by Aulia NurFitrah Ibrahim portrays a literal combination of Spain and England. The green light on both of makes it look as they are almost truly one person. This is strengthened by the shading in the hair bring each color onto the other side at random points. Possible improvements are that Spain's hair has details within it, whereas England's does not, and the transition of brunette to blonde could have been smoother. Even without shipping this, I think the art is amazing.

ART REVIEWS

This one was done by Dovely. Finland is wearing some Christmas stuff, and has his mochi, Hanatamago, and a present. The shading, wrinkles, and angles were all done extremely well. Finland's hair is a bit longer than normal, but I personally think this makes him look cuter. There is a strange object behind Hana that I can't quite figure out what it is. All in all, a cute piece of art.
