

Portfolio Of Work

@marishadolly

LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/marisha-dolly-singh-93489a15/

Website: <https://marishadsingh.journoportfolio.com/>

**This is to showcase my work covering domestic and international events in video and text.*

'It's A Fight For Survival'

Geo-politics: Indian Government Criticized By UN Human Rights Chief For Kashmir Turmoil At Opening Session of 33rd Human Rights Council.

READ

Denied Entry: Why Are Foreign Journalists Being Barred From Entering India?

A consistent pattern over the decades shows how the Indian Government refuses entry to journalists who have portrayed India in a negative light. READ

Geo-economics: A Million Indians Spent $11 Billion In The U.S. Last Year

U.S. Presidential hopeful Donald Trump has made 'bringing jobs back to U.S. from China, India' one of his biggest poll promises. But the flow of dollars is not a one-way street. READ

The Rise And Troubles Of The Uber Empire

Uber's success has been unprecedented, which means that even as technology changes lives the balance between forging into the future and having an adaptive regulatory environment is the need of the hour. READ

India's Premier Film Institute's Students Launch Strike, Shutdown Campus

The students of FTII are on an indefinite strike. They believe the recent appointment of actor Gajendra Chauhan as chairman will alter the very essence of India's leading institution for cinema studies.

- VIEW VIDEO
- READ ARTICLE

The Meaning Behind The Hints, The Smiles And The Nudges In Modi's 50-minute Speech

Prime Minister Modi Addresses U.S. Congress

Four Indian Prime Ministers have addressed a joint session of the U.S. Congress before Narendra Modi made his speech to Congressmen and Congresswomen on June 8. But, Modi's address is a landmark event not just for the optics provided but for what he underlined as the state of India-U.S. relations.

Why Hillary Clinton And Donald Trump Want The Millennial Vote

In many ways the US Presidential elections of 2016 is a watershed moment for the 200 year old democracy. Never have both the candidates been disliked by so many of their voters and nor have the candidates themselves faced a voter base that is as much a wild card as the one in 2016.

Read This Ground Report.

Can India Have A Model Based On Great Britain's NHS?

Despite the recent turmoil and austerity measures imposed on Great Britain's National Health Service (NHS), the public health provider is one of the best such system in the world. The Indian government's ambitious plan is to set up a 100 smart cities by 2030. Can the NHS model be introduced in this country whose current public health offering is far outmatched by the demand.

- View Interview
- Read Article

The Thieves of Ambivali

On the outskirts of Mumbai lives a small community of Indian-Iranis. Their language is not similar to any other dialect in the country and their physical features are proof of their Middle-eastern heritage.

Uncovering The Mystery Of A Tribe Of Indian-Iranis

But the urban tribe's name has recently figured in a string of illegal activities ranging from bike-thefts, house-break-ins, to dealing with contraband goods. The police have labelled the entire community as thieves. But is that really true?

- View Video
- Read Article

DLD Tel Aviv: Showcasing The Next Big Things In Technology

The DLD Innovation Festival is about creating a platform between the creators and users of technology, with Tel Aviv at the center of all the action.

Two days, close to a 100 speakers, an estimated 10,000 guests and over 3000 of them from overseas congregated in Tel Aviv on September 8th & 9th to justify the city's tag of being the Middle-East's largest international Hi-tech gathering. Tech giants like Intel, Amazon Web Services, Facebook, AOL and Twitter had set up shop – to showcase their latest wares from virtual, wireless systems to cloud based platforms. View Video. Read Article.

Kaizad Kotwal: Indian Constitution Does Not Guarantee You The Right To Get Offended

Despite a flurry of protests, threats of ban, jail time for the director as well as the crew; the much talked about play – Agnes of God, opened at the NCPA on a rainy evening on October 5th. Kaizad Kotwal, Director of the play opens up about the essence of Freedom of Expression and the ban culture sweeping the country. View Interview. Read Article.

India, Bangladesh Swap Land

On July 31, India and Bangladesh began to finally swap tiny islands of land, ending one of the world's most difficult border disputes that has kept thousands of people stateless for almost 70 years. India and Bangladesh will now print, sign and exchange the strip maps of un-demarcated sectors to implement the Land Boundary Agreement (LBA). View Video. Read Article.

Despite Threats, Afghan Women Join Army

Kabul's military training academy is churning out new classes of enthusiastic women. But, constant violence and a conservative society make the future for the young recruits far from certain. View Video.