Afternoon Tea at PEARLS

Afternoon tea was introduced in England by Anna, the seventh Duchess of Bedford, in the year 1840. The duchess would become hungry between breakfast and dinner and made this time a fashionable social event.

Today, Afternoon Tea at PEARLS is a chance to indulge in our freshly made sandwiches and cakes served on a beautiful three tier cake stand accompanied by our very own speciality loose leaf tea.

However we have adapted this tradition and come up with our exclusive afternoon teas with an Indian & Arabian Twist.

The afternoon tea experience at PEARLS is a privilege for all who appreciate the finer things in life. Traditional Afternoon tea in a luxury setting.

English Lakes Breakfast

Tea leaves from India, Sri Lanka, and Kenya come together in this full bodied, malty blend that ticks every box in the malty English breakfast category.

Decaffeinated Breakfast

A light Sri Lankan tea drastically reduced caffeine content for when you need the flavour without the drama.

English Hedgerow

A wonderfully fruity blend combining everything one would expect to encounter during a stroll in the beautiful English countryside.

Earl Grey

Light Sri Lankan tea leaves scented with citrusy bergamot oil create this fruity favourite which is a popular alternative to English breakfast.

Darjeeling

Only a limited amount of first flush Darjeeling which is known as the 'champagne of teas' is made available each year. This is an excellent example of the full-bodied, floral and subtly fruity infusion.

Chamomile Tisane

When you need the exact opposite of what caffeine provides, look no further than this soothing combination of floral tones provided by chamomile, lavender and rose. Lemon verbena gives a balancing citrus character.

Green Tea

This tightly compacted green tea leaves carry a subtle smoky character.

Kendal Mint Cake

Traditionally served after a meal, this sweet and refreshing minty blend is perfect at any time of the day.

Masala Chai

Rich, malty Assam black tea hosts an almighty accompaniment of aromatic spices.

Cherry Green Sencha

A beautiful Japanese Sencha Green Tea laced with Cherry Blossom. Its light, delicate taste and intoxicating aroma are wonderfully appealing and soothing. If you've never tried green tea before, this is a good place to start. One of Japan's most popular tea flavours.

Rooibos Citrus Twist

Naturally caffeine free, Rooibos carries subtle vanilla and citrus notes that are maximised by real fruit pieces and lime leave.

Lemon & Ginger

A divine combination of aromatic ginger root, zesty lemon and sweet apple flavours. Perfect when the cold is biting.

House Blend Coffees

All our coffees are made with our exclusive PEARLS coffee blend which originates from Brazil, Columbia, Honduras & Indonesia.

Tasting Notes:

Sweet, syrupy and nutty with a floral, perfumed aroma. Notes of peanut and butterscotch can develop along with gooseberry and grape tannins .
