new ministry grid

We are excited for the launch of this new online leadership training program on 4 March.

Many of you will remember several months ago when David Apple from LifeWay was with us to lead in a training time for all of our volunteer teachers and leaders. This follows as one of the tools our church will have access to. We believe that training matters! It matters for those in current leadership, and for the leaders in the future that we want to prepare to lead in our small group Bible studies. Training church leaders is a concept that is as old as the church itself. From Moses to Paul, biblical examples abound of individuals who led and served God's people while raising new leaders to continue the work.

KIBC in... Cambodia

“The opportunity to join in the trip to Cambodia was answered prayer for me. I thank God for the time that my employer allowed me to be away. There was no mistaking the hopelessness we saw in the areas where our prayer walking took us on Areykasat Island. I personally witnessed young people gambling, using drugs, and even prostitution in that place. I noticed a young girl hiding cigarettes in her pocket, and a young boy under the influence of drugs, who wanted to join in with us while we were teaching a Bible study, and another very young girl, who was obviously pregnant. In each case, they seemed hopeless. I felt such a burden inside my heart to share my faith with those around us whose lives seemed to be wasted. I knew that this HOPE in my heart - the grace of God - could give their lives new meaning! All Areykasat Island needed was one individual to share their faith so that the HOPE of Christ would be evident and offer an opportunity to bring new meaning to their lives.”
