For one,,I don't Kno how u got unfriended,,slip of the hand, or something,, it happens,,,,but I didn't unfriend u fir the millionth time.....second,,,just cuz I say I don't want ppl to Kno where I am,,does NOT make me a bad person,,,,third,,when I don't immediately respond to a person,,,it's nothing personal or against that person,,,,I'm just the type of person who when I shut down, I shut down. All ther is to it... Now,,,I would've NEVER thought those actions could possibly hav warranted your vicious, childish, over the top reaction. As far as " What have I done for u?" I've assisted u on anything uve asked,,without asking for payment in return,,,,ive gladly tended to u're house to help clear or clean clutter,,JUST to b a friend,,not run a tab(unlike u,who has nicked and dimed me,at EVERY TURN!) selflessly,,gav up my desperately needed narcan for money, cuz i was homeless n in a bad spot,,but marks life was definitely more valuable,,and instead of being a selfish bitch,,,I also gave my assistance in saving his life..cuz I don't falter under pressure like hhmhhh u.....then my Rocky bumpy life started up again,,,,n I go ghost,,just how I handle things,, not saying it's polite,,but how I handle things....but one thing about me,,,is I never stay down,,,,n I've known my time to come back up was coming soon,,,,n my plan was,,,to help u

U from the jump have had u'reterior motives,,,yes,, u hav made them known that u like me or want me in a different way than just friends....but just cuz u admit that DOES NOT make it ok for u to continue to make ure crass, vile, rude sexual requests at me,, especially when u think I'm down on my luck enuff to HAVE to give in

I'm not doing this with you Marie. I'm sorry that you saw my efforts as harmful instead of helpful. You can have the bag of clothes I got today that are in the garage if you like. If not, please seek help and good luck to you.

spoiled brat reaction? I didn't do anything Marie.

I went to rehab and you didn't pick up your clothes

I have never put one ounce of energy into spite or harming you. If you get some sort of satisfaction by lashing out on me, than go ahead.

blaming everyone must be exhausting. Not as exhausting as staying up all night to drive someone to a DCS court case on their only day off in two weeks, but exhausting still
