Pruden Davidson Married Raleigh Girl In Church Ceremony Saturday

In a ceremony solemnized Saturday, October 17, at the Hayes Barton Baptist church in Raleigh, Miss Margaret Kendall Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Reid Martin, of Raleigh, became the bride of Lt. Edward Pruden Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry W. Davidson, of Murphy.

Dr. Carl M. Townsend officiated, and the nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. C. D. McLeod, organist, and Miss Page Eatman, vocalist. Miss Eatman sang "At Dawning", by Cadman, and "I Love You Truly" by Grieg. Organ number included "Andante", by Tschalkowsky, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice", by Saint Saens, "Clair de Lune", by Debussy, Schubert's "Ave Maria", and the traditional wedding marches of Wagner and Mendelssohn.

Palms, white candles, and baskets of white chrysanthemums decorated the altar, at which the vows were spoken.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress of bride's blue velvet trimmed with white Irish lace. Her hat and shoes were of wine, and her flowers were white roses centered with an orchid. Miss Katherine Martin, of Baltimore, Md., attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a dress of rose tone velvet, and her flowers were yellow roses and blue delphinium tied with yellow ribbon.

Lt. Edward L. Myers Jr., of Pope Field, attended the bridegroom as best man, and ushers were Lt. John H. Simms, Lt. Jack Emrick, Lt. Francis H. Nance and Lt. Matthew D. Kerr, all of Pope Field.

The bride's mother wore a dress of velvet crepe with matching hat trimmed with fuschia flowers and a corsage of fuschia roses and violets. The bridegroom's mother wore black crepe with black accessories, and her corsage was of gardenias.

For going away, the bride changed to a teal blue wool suit with wine accessories and the orchid taken from her bridal bouquet. Lieutenant and Mrs. Davidson will reside in Fayetteville temporarily.

Mrs. Davidson was graduated from Needham Broughton high school and Peace Junior College. Lieutenant Davidson is a graduate of State College, where he was a member of the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity. He received his commission at Chanute Field, Ill., and is connected with the engineering branch of the Army Air Corps.

Just Forget

Forget the slander you have heard, Forget the hasty unkind word, Forget the quarrel and the cause, Forget the whole affair because Forget it is the only way; Forget the storm of yesterday, Forget those with the sour face, Forget the smile in any place, Forget the trials you have had, Forget the weather if it's bad, Forget the knocker, he's a freak, Forget him seven days a week, Forget you're not a millionaire, Forget the gray streaks in your hair,

Forget wherever you may roam, Forget when traveling or at home. —Myrtle May Dryden.

Story of India Told At Woman's Club Meeting By Mrs. John Smith

Mrs. John Smith, of Sylva, who returned home a few months ago after spending almost ten years in India, spoke to the Murphy Woman's club Wednesday afternoon on India, its geography, attractions for tourists, and its desire for freedom. She was introduced by Mrs. H. Bueck, chairman of the program committee.

Mrs. Harry Miller, president of the club, presided. A short business session was held, at which time a recording secretary, Miss Addie Leatherwood, was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. W. M. Fain.

Mrs. T. A. Case, chairman of the Cherokee County Red Cross chapter, reported on the work done on surgical dressings. Mrs. Dale Lee, chairman of knitting, reported the work done in her department, and Mrs. R. C. Mattox, chairman of the sewing room, reported on her work.

Mrs. Bueck, Junior Red Cross chairman, announced the date of enrollment, November 1, for two weeks. She also announced that the juniors had collected keys for the scrap drive, and the money obtained for these keys would be used for the milk fund for pupils.

Nutrition classes were completed last week, and the next project taken up by the Red Cross chapter will be making comfort kits for soldiers going overseas. Mrs. Miller announced.

Music for the program was furnished by Miss Margaret Curd, who played Rachmaninoff's Prelude in C sharp Minor.

Following the program, refreshments were served by the home economics class under the direction of Miss Ruth Davis Emory. The meeting was held in the home economics room, which was decorated in keeping with the Halloween season, with autumn flowers, owls, witches, and black cats. Small black cats made by Miss Curd's art class, were used on the plates as favors.

Preceding the club meeting, Mrs. Smith was entertained at luncheon at the Regal hotel, by members of the club.

Seated with the honoree were: Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Case, Mrs. Bueck, Mrs. T. S. Evans, Mrs. M. W. Bell, Mrs. W. W. Hyde, Mrs. H. G. Elkins, Mrs. Thelma Dickey, Mrs. O. K. Erhart, Mrs. Myron Jensen, and Mrs. C. W. Savage.
