

From the stable of PEN WRITERS
narrative fiction

N I N A

HOW HER BEAUTY FELL LIKE A LEAF

ISHAYA BAMAIYI

Graphical ARTS by:

Ish-Toonz

INTRODUCTION

Greetings to you

I'm ISHAYA BAMAIYI

I'm very pleased and glad that you are about to read this literature titled”

NINA

(how her beauty fell like a leaf)

This is a narrative fictional literature that talks about beauty and character.

It comes in a story form with the figure of a lady as the main character which I named NINA.

Let me not bore you with too many words as you are about to get the whole details as you go through this literature.

Happy reading...

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Wants to thank God for giving me this mind of creative thinking to come up with this particular work of art.

Writing a fiction can really be hardworking, but thank God for the privilege of sound mind.

I thank God for followers and friends both in real life and social media that have gone through my previous works and found it interesting.

I can't afford to forget Ish-Toonz for a great work of Image arts used for the graphical representations in this literature.

And thank you too for having this work.

DEDICATION

I dedicate this work of art to every woman that understands the meaning of true beauty.

THE NARATION

Once upon a time, there was a man who was called Mr Roy.

Mr Roy was a lawyer working with one of the reputable Chambers in the state.

On his 7th year of practicing, He got married to the woman of his dream called Miriam.

Mr Roy and his wife Miriam were not more of religious fanatics, but they have morals for social living.

After their two years of marriage, they were blessed with a beautiful girl child. They named their baby NINA.

Nina was a very beautiful little girl. She was loved and she was the delight of many. Her dazzling smile makes many wants to carry her.

Nina grew up with her beauty and beautiful smiles. In her teenage, she became the envy of many of her peers.

Too many guys wants to go out with Nina.

Nina was practically a hot cake in her environment among her peers.

She was one day approached by a young guy call Jeff. Jeff tried asking her to be his “Girl friend” but Nina laughed it out because she didn’t take him serious, she must have turned down other guys better than him by her standards.

Nina kept growing receiving a lot of admiration from both sexes.

She had just too many compliments that at a time she became full of herself.

Nina gradually became arrogant to her friends and admirers.

Many of her friends walked away from her.

Before she could realize, they were already gone, because they couldn't just tolerate her any longer.

Oh! How her beauty fell like a leaf.

She never knew when it started falling.

One day, in deep thought
she asked herself;

“What is going on, why are my friends avoiding me and no more admirations and compliments from people like before?”

Nina became frustrated because she was not ready to cross-check her attitude, so to gain back her lost glory of too many admirers, she gave in to heavy make ups and wearing of sexy dresses.

Nina gradually became loosed, and of cause she got back some admirers.

These admirers that even with your eyes closed you will quest right their type.

Oh! How her beauty fell like a leaf.

The once upon a time
beautiful and Dazzling Nina that attracts good and promising people, now attracts wolves, snakes and scorpions.

Nina turned herself into a public liability company that every wayward and tout is a shareholder.

Nina, just like many are ignorant of the fact that true and lasting beauty is the one that transcend the physical. Lasting beauty has its bedrock on the inside and its lasting effect on the outside.

Once the foundation of a structure which is beneath the surface fails, the physical structure collapses.

Truly, your physical beauty attracts people to you, but it is your inner beauty that will keep them.

Esther was beautiful, likewise
Delilah too.

But what differentiate them was the inner content of their beauty.

Esther's content was deep and glorious.

Delilah's content was just a mirage for the while.

You need the inner beauty as a matter of fact to sustain the physical.

Don't be like NINA

THE END

Thank you for reading
NINA (How her beauty fell like a leaf)

If you find this fiction interesting, you can go ahead and share with friends.

For comments and inquiry on this short fiction you just read?

I will love to hear from you.

You can contact or reach me on any of the platforms below

ISHAYA BAMAIYI

08064734870

generalishaya@gmail.com

Thank you!