4 vs 4 Rules:

Four players on each side of the table with each player controlling one rod with one hand.

Players may not switch hands once the ball is put into play.

If a team scores a point, they must rotate positions before the ball is put into play.

The player on the three-man rod shall move to the goalie-rods and the rest of the players shall move forward one rod.

A team may change their assembled positions before the match begins or between games.

No change of positions during a time-out.

Once a game has begun, teams must maintain the same order of rotation for the remainder of the game.

Talking while the ball is in play is allowed.

Beside the mentioned rules, the standard ITSF-Rules are active.
