

The Shelter People, name courtesy from the late Leon Russell, are an American rock band formed in Tulsa, OK in 2016. The group consists of guitarist/lead vocalist Dakota Hurley (pictured right), bassist and back up vocalist Garon Burch (pictured middle), and percussionist Justin Dennis (pictured left). Their style draws mostly from the blues rock bands of the late 60s and early 70s. After releasing their debut self-titled EP, the band took on a month long tour in April and May of 2018 supporting The Sword during their Used Future tour. Following their recent success, The Shelter People have gone back to the drawing board to create and curate their debut LP. Now, the band aims to entertain audiences around the world.
