

Terms of service

Before commissioning

- If you know what you'd want, but you're unsure about the price, you may ask without any compromise.
- I reserve full rights to reject any and all orders either for not respecting the ToS or due to personal reasons
- Preferably, contact me through the following:
 - Telegram, Instagram and Twitter: @AkatuKatu
 - Discord: AkatuKatu#2995
- I will need clear visual reference material for your character, however, an in-depth well written description can work too.
 - In the event that only a written description is provided, supplementary visual aides, such as photographs for the setting, textures, similar works, etc, shall be provided..

Payment

- Payment will be made through PayPal, and only using Euro as a currency, please ensure you're using the right currency before processing your payment
- 50% of the total price for the work shall be provided, and the remaining 50% has to be provided upon minimum viable product completion.

My PayPal account: paypal.me/AkatuKatu

General process

- Within reason, all sorts of minor changes to the piece are allowed, but large changes such as perspective and posing, will be accepted only before the first draft is finished.
- If asked, i may provide with updates on the drawing, but this shall not be exploited
- Once the commission has been accepted and work on it has started, payments can not be refunded under any circumstances.
- Once the payment has been processed i will attempt to finish the piece as soon as possible, however do keep in mind unexpected delays may happen, in the event of such occurrence happens, you will be notified.

Once its finished

- You will receive on your payment email, the full resolution copy of your art, as a PNG file.

Refunds

- All the work specified is non refundable, with the sole exception being exceptional causes preventing me from starting a piece.
