

Two—time water from the Rock

1Co. 10:11 These things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the fulfilment of the ages has come.

The key events in the movement of Israelites from Egypt to the Promised Land are patterns or types of events the Church will experience before the rapture, and hence entering heaven. One key event that came upon the Israelites as they journeyed to the Promised Land was water from the rock, which happened twice.

Ex. 17:1 The whole Israelite community set out from the Desert of Sin, travelling from place to place as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink.

Ex. 17:2 So they quarrelled with Moses and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses replied, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you put the LORD to the test?"

Ex. 17:3 But the people were thirsty for water there, and they grumbled against Moses. They said, "Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to make us and our children and livestock die of thirst?"

Ex. 17:4 Then Moses cried out to the LORD, "What am I to do with these people? They are almost ready to stone me."

Ex. 17:5 The LORD answered Moses, "Walk on ahead of the people. Take with you some of the elders of Israel and take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go.

Ex. 17:6 I will stand there before you by the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it for the people to drink." So Moses did this in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Ex. 17:8 The Amalekites came and attacked the Israelites at Rephidim.

Shavuot (Feast of Pentecost) is actually the commemoration of the first water from the rock. The Israelites drank water from the rock before they reached the desert of Sinai, where they received the law. Shortly after they drank water from the rock, war with the Amalekites ensued.

Nu. 20:2 Now there was no water for the community, and the people gathered in opposition to Moses and Aaron.

Nu. 20:6 Moses and Aaron went from the assembly to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and fell face down, and the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

Nu. 20:7 The LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 20:8 "Take the staff, and you and your brother Aaron gather the assembly together.

Speak to that rock before their eyes and it will pour out its water. You will bring water out of the rock for the community so that they and their livestock can drink."

In the fortieth year of the movement of Israelites from Egypt to the Promised Land, the second water from the rock happened. Once the Israelites drank this second water from the rock, the final thrust to the Promised Land began, after years of wandering aimlessly in the desert. Obviously, the second water from the rock enabled the Israelites to make the final thrust to the Promised Land. They got to the Promised Land less than one year after drinking the second water from the rock. The second water from the rock took place on Shavuot (Feast of Pentecost), but by then the Israelites had not started celebrating the appointed feasts, being still in the desert. Shortly after the second water from the rock, war ensued.

The antitype of the two-time water from the rock

Jn. 7:37 On the last and greatest day of the Feast, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink.

Jn. 7:38 Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, streams of living water will flow from within him."

Ac. 1:4 On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about.

Ac. 1:5 For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

On a day of Shavuot (Feast of Pentecost), just after Jesus' ascension to heaven, the Holy Spirit came upon Jesus' disciples who thirsted for living water and hence waited for it, as Jesus had commanded. This was the antitype of the first water from the rock, or what is also known as the early rain of the Holy Spirit. Since then, the Church has been waiting for the latter rain of the Holy Spirit.

The latter rain of the Holy Spirit is the antitype of the second water from the rock. It will occur less than one year to the rapture, on a day of Shavuot (Feast of Pentecost).

In a dream that I had in April 2008, I saw that Angela Merkel of Germany will be in trouble in September of a future year. This year, 2021, is the only remaining year in which that revelation could come to fulfillment, because Angela Merkel's reign as German Chancellor will end this year. Angela Merkel will be in trouble because the Antichrist will be the next leader of Germany after Angela Merkel.

Shavuot (Feast of Pentecost) in 2021, according to the calendar given by God to the ancient Israelites, will take place on July 18. That could be the day of the latter rain of the Holy Spirit. By new moon of July, serious people of God will begin to thirst for living water very vigorously. There may be some situations that will make serious people of God to begin to seek God more than ever. This may well be when the first seal of Revelation 6 will be opened.

Not long after July 18, wars will ensue around the world, signifying the opening of the second seal of Revelation 6. People of God will enter heaven before the end of this year, via the rapture.
