

Explore the Latest Collection of Designer George Nelson's Coffee Table

The George Nelson coffee table is inspired by the design himself. The coffee table has been designed keeping in mind the requirement of customers. The crisp and minimalist design has been taken from the old classic 1954 era. The white lacquer finishes and a smooth circular tabletop; the coffee table is manufactured per the original classic's exact specifications.

If you plan to have a stylish living room environment, the George Nelson coffee table is the best choice. The minimalist design fits any stylish environment. The smooth white tabletop allows the coffee table which blends with almost any color of your room. The strong aluminum channel proves to be a very strong stand that is the table's central column. This adds to the stability and style of the George Nelson coffee table.

Let's first know a little about George Nelson:

George Nelson is the designer of the coffee table; he is considered the founder of American modernism. George Nelson was an American industrial designer, and hence he was a great admirer of recycled items. Whenever he found a good design or some solutions to a certain problem, he used such things repeatedly. George Nelson was renowned for his ideas of the most unlikely places. Nelson introduced that anything could be turned into a unique furniture design. The most famous design made by him is based on coconuts and marshmallows.

This is how he invented the first writing table, which appeared in 1950; the sleek circular tabletop proved to be very strong, the aluminum legs were very robust. This writing table was simply a hit among the customers because of its simple design and durability. Over some time, the writing table circumference increased, and thus it turned into a coffee table. George Nelson believed that simple ideas are the best.

To Sum Up

When you buy the latest George Nelson-designed furniture, then you get a ten-year guarantee on the product. All the materials used to manufacture these products are sourced from the best brands and high-quality materials. This ensures durability and quality, and the design of the furniture is perfect and as per the demand of the customers.

You can explore different types of George Nelson coffee tables and furniture at STIN who exclusively sells these products at affordable prices. To discover more, click here now:
<https://www.stin.com/tables/side-tables/george-nelson-coffee-table.html>.

Contact Us

Email: info@stin.com

TOLL FREE: 1-866-796-3828